Joe Walton

For Powhatan County Board of Supervisors

Hello, I am Joe Walton and I am running for the District One seat of the Powhatan County Board of Supervisors.

My Vision is Powhatan as a well balanced, highly regarded, open space-focused Central Virginia community.

This brochure and my website will give you and idea of what I stand for and what I will strive to accomplish once elected.

Let's move forward, make progress and do the right thing for our County's future.

Election Day is Tuesday, November 6th, 2007 - I'd appreciate your vote!

Important Issues

- Ensure fiscal responsibility
- Pursue quality commercial development
- Update Comprehensive Plan to:
 - * Preserve an open space-focused community
 - * Effectively plan for residential and commercial growth
 - * Effectively plan for transportation
- Update zoning ordinances to support and enforce the Comprehensive Plan
- Plan for long range water and sewer needs
- Support a strong public education system
- Plan with surrounding counties, state and federal agencies for Powhatan's future security

As your Supervisor, I will pursue fiscal responsibility and quality, balanced growth.

I will bring an objective perspective and strive for cooperative leadership.

I will take the initiative to stay informed and work hard to get results.

I will be optimistic, accessible and accountable to all the citizens of our county and hold quarterly meetings with constituents.

I will make every vote count towards the betterment of our County - starting my first day in office.

- ✓ Fiscal Responsibility
- ✓ Quality Growth
- ✓ Objective Perspective
